

A Warm Welcome to the Elisabeth Holiday Home

Spend your holiday in our newly renovated luxury apartments.

We are centrally located in the heart of the village. Right next to the building you will find the ski bus stop, a 3-minute ride to the Ski Pleasures of Hauser Kaibling with the 4-Mountain-Ski-Connections in the Ski amadé, the start of the cross-country skiing trails, ski hire and ski service, an open-air swimming pool, bakery, restaurants, café, newsagents, grocery shop, banks, hairdressers, beauty shops and much more.

Our apartments are furnished with comfortable bedrooms (bed linen provided), cosy living area/kitchens (oven with oven rings, fridge/freezer, dishwasher, microwave, kettle, coffee machine and toaster), a living room with sofa, television (cable tv connection), radio alarm, bathroom with shower (hairdryer and towels provided) and separate WC, ski depot, plenty of parking directly in front of the building and a large outdoor relaxing area.

You will find more information and photos under Apartments below!

Data Privacy Policy

Data Processing & Data Storage

The protection of your personal data is a top priority for us. As a consequence, we handle your data exclusively in strict compliance with data privacy laws (DSGVO, TKG 2003). In the following data privacy policy, we inform you about the most important aspects of how data is handled within the framework of our website.

If you have transmitted your personally identifiable information through this website or by email, such information will only be used in order to conduct correspondence with you as well as for those purposes for which you provided that information. We assure you that your personally identifiable information will not be shared with third parties unless the law requires us to do so.

The data you have provided will only be stored until such point as the purpose for which it was shared has been achieved. Insofar as the law requires that data be stored for a specific period of time, we will comply with such legal provisions. Should you no longer agree to our storing your personally identifiable data, pursuant to your request we will delete such data. If your personal data has changed in the meantime, we will correct that data based upon the information you provide us.

SSL Encryption

For security reasons and in order to protect transmission of confidential content, such as inquiries which are sent to us using the contact form, this site uses SSL encryption. You will be able to recognize the secure connection when the URL in your browser changes from "http://" to "https://", also generally accompanied by a green padlock symbol in your browser toolbar.

Your right to request information, deletion, blocking of data

You have the right, at any time and at no cost, to receive information about your personally identifiable data stored by us, about the source and recipient thereof, the purpose for which it was collected, as well as to demand the correction, blockage or deletion of such data.

Contact us

In this regard, as well as if you have additional questions on the topic of "personally identifiable data", you may contact us at any time, either using the information contained in this imprint.
